VVHOLE
BOOKE OF PSALMES
Faithfully
TRANSLATED into ENGLISH Metre.

Whereunto is prefixed a discourse declaring not only the lawfulness, but also the necessity of the heavenly Ordinance of singing Scripture Psalmes in the Churches of God.

Coll. 111.

Let the word of God dwell plentifully in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall Songs, singing to the Lord with grace in your hearts.

James v.

If any be afflicted, let him pray, and if any be merry let him sing psalmes.

The Preface.

THE singing of Psalmes, though it breath forth nothing but holy harmony, and melody: yet such is the subtilty of the enemy, and the enmity of our nature against the Lord, & his wayes, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody. - for There have been three questions especially stirring concerning singing. First. what psalmes are to be sung in churches? whether Davids and other scripture psalmes, or the psalmes invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church. Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as english poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly. by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing alone and the rest joyning in silence, & in the close saying amen.

Touching the first, certainly the singing of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God; not only in his owne, but in succeeding times. as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5. 13. in Iehosaphats time 2 Chron. 20. 21. in Ezra his time Ezra 3. 10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekiabs time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 Chron. 29. 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once, for this commandment was it cer-

The.

tioniall or morall? some things in it indeed were cerimoniall, as their muscalle instruments &c but what ceremony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typicall? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typicall because the ceremony of muscalle instruments was joynd with them, then their prayers were also typicall, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their muscalle instruments. Beside, that which was typicall (as that they were sung with muscalle instruments, by the twenty-four orders of Priests and Levites. 1 Chron. 25. 9.) must have the morall and spirituall accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests Rev. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God. Rev. 14. 4. as the Levites were Numb. 1. 45. with hearts & lippes, in stead of muscalle instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously thinke) Rev. 4. 4. by twety foure Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 3. 1, 2, 3. answering to the twenty foure orders of Priests and Levites 1 Chron. 25. 9. Therefore not some select members

members, but the whole Church is commanded to teach one another in all the severall sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by himselfe מזמור: psalms, some תהלה: Hymns some שיר: spirituall songs. soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therefore perpetuall, then wee under the new Testamēt are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are expressly commanded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordinary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirituall Israell, not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end) soe their sin is crying before God, who will allow them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in christian churches.

obj. 1. If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church.

1 Cor. 14. 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of the spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were enabled to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherein learned Parvus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Commēt on that place uers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his servant David? there is not the least foot-step of example, or precept, or colour of reason for such a bold practise.

* 3 the

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporary psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly, Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joynt consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that composeth a psalme, bringeth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invētion; for which wee finde no warrant or precedent in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the scriptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalmes psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himselfe in infinite wisdom hath made to suit all the conditions, necessities, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as most of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and perticularly cleared) therefore by this the Lord seemeth to stoppe all mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or sing any other psalmes (under colour that the occasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, seeing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himselfe hath supplied us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them those which had extraordinary gifts to compile new songs on those new occasions, as Isaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to sing in the words of David and Asaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but those that are wise will easily see; that those set formes of psalmes of Gods owne appoyntment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were sung in the spirit by those holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therein to any set formes; and shall set formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be sung in the spirit now, which others did then?

Question. But why may not one compose a psalme & sing it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with with him in silence and in the end say Amen?

Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to ioine together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for-
 First. Davids psalmes as hath beene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty foure orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty foure Elders all the members especially of christian Churches Rev. 5. 2. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other order of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospel for their qualification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faithfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Jewish Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing; as in ps. 100. 1, 2, 3. ps. 95. 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers. 18. & Ex. 15. 1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they spake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and deut. 32. (where to some thinke, Iohn had reference as well as to Ex. 15. 1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Rev. 15. 3. this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31. 15. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing it together as well as with their hearts.

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate lost soules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52. 8, 9. and Rev. 7. 9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expressly commands the singing of Psalmes, Himnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5. 19 coll. 3. 16. Paule & Silas sang together in private Acts. 16. 25. and must the publick heare oly one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us (saith he) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same purpose also Eusebius gives witnes, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyning to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing as also that wee are not alway in a futable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas: men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding?

As for the scruple that some take at the translation of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter: wee answer. First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Theſau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are futable to the poetry of the hebrew language, and not in the common style of such other bookes of the old Testament as are not poetically; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookes of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into

into meeter, that soe wee may sing the Lords songs, as in our english tongue soe in such verses as are familiar to an english care which are commonly metrical: and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, soe neither to sing his poetically verses in english poetical metre: men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes (and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language: but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; soe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that, but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs, soe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poetical licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses, noe; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text.

As for other objections taken from the difficulty of Ainsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our

our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have cause to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translators of the psalmes into metre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 chron. 29. 30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not seldome and rare, but very frequent and many times needles, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may iustly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe inioye other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerein as our chief guide the originall, shunning all additions, except such as even the best translators translators of them in prose supply, avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sense. The word And which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew, soe sometime (though not very often) it hath been left out, and yet not then, if the sense were not faire without it.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarismes.

Synonimæes wee use indifferently: as sake for prayer, and Lord for Yehovah, and sometime (though seldome) God for Yehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority ps. 14. with 33. Heb. 1. 5. with psalme 97. 7.

Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which (in our owne apprehension) is most genuine & edifying:

Sometime wee have contracted, sometime dilated the same hebrew word, both for the sense and the verse sake: which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrastical addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution: as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods fearers.

Lastly, Because some hebrew words have a more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth sometime expresse, hence wee have done that sometime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasis of it; as נ mighty God, for God. רר humbly blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand truth and faithfullnes for truth. Howbeit, for the verse sake wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee sometime say reioyce for shout for ioye.

The.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speech, they are such as either the hebrew will unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the sence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our pollishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth our verses with the sweetness of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english meetre; that that soe wee may sing in Sion the Lords songs of prayle according to his owne will; untill hee take us from hence, and wipe away all our teares, & bid us enter into our masters ioye to sing eternall Halleluiahs.

- O Blessed man, that in th' advice all his
of wicked doeth not walk:
nor stand in sinners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk:
2 But in the law of Iehovah is his longing delight:
and in his law doth meditate by day and eke by night:
3 And he shall be like to a tree planted by water-rivers:
that in his season yeilds his fruit,
and his leafe never withers:
4 And all he doth, shall prosper well, the wicked are not for but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro: 5 Therefore shall not vngodly men rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the sinners with the just in their assemblie come: 6 For of the righteous men, the Lord acknowledgeth the way:
but the way of vngodly men

the Daughter of Sion, thy prayses all: and may rejoyce
in thy salvation.
15 The heathen are sunk downe into the pit that they had made:
their owne foot taken is in't net which privily they layd.
16 By judgement which he executes Iehovah is made knowne:
the wicked's snar'd in's owne hand work.
deepe meditation.
17 Th' wicked shall be turn'd to hell,
all lands that God forget.
18 Forgot the ready shall he be:
poores hope he'll be said him, yet.

9 Arise

PSALM X, X:

- 19 Arise, O Lord, lest men prevaile, judge & headen in thy sight.
20 That they may know they be but men, the nations Lord affright. Selah

Psalm 10

V Hy standst thou Lord a far? why hydest thy selfe in times of streight?

- 2 In pride the wicked persecutes
the poore afflicted wight:
snare them in their contrived plots.

- 3 For of his hearts desire the wicked boasts, and covetous blesseth, stirring Gods ire.

- 4 The wicked one by reason of his countenances pride will not seek after God: not God so all his thoughts abide.

- 5 his wayes doe alwayes bring forth griefe, on high thy judgements bee
puffe at them all will hee.

- 6 Within his heart he thus hath sayd,
I moved shall not bee:
fro naye to aye because I am not in adversitie.

- 7 His mouth with euiling filled is,
deceits, and fallacy:
under his tongue perversnes is,
also inquiry.

- 8 In the close places of the towne
he sits, in secret dens

he

PSALME X.

he slays the harmlesse: 'gainst the poore slyly his eyes downe bends.

- 9 He closely lurks as lion lurks in den, the poore to catch he lurks, & trapping them in 's net th' afflicted poore doth snatch.

- 10 Downe doth he crouch, & to the dust humbly he bowes with all:
that so a multitude of poore in his strong pawes may fall.

- 11 He saith in heart, God hath forgott
he hides his face away, so that he will not see this thing unto eternall aye.

- 12 Iehovah rise thou up, O God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one be out of memory.

- 13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one?
he in his heart saith, thou wilt not make inquisition.

- 14 Thou seest, for thou markest wrong, & spight,
with thy hand to repay:
the poore leaues it to thee, thou art of fatherlesse the stay.

- 15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one.
search thou out his impiety, untill thou findest none.

16 Iehovah

PSALM X, X7

- 16 Iehovah king for ever is,
and to eternall aye:
out of his land the heathen folke are perished away.
- 17 The meeke afflicted-mans desire Iehovah, thou dost heare:
thou firmly dost prepare their heart, thou makst attend thine eare.
- 18 To judge the fatherlesse & poore:
that ad no more he may forrowfull man out of the land with terror to dismay.

Psalme 110

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

- In the Lord do trust, how then to my soule doe ye say, as doth a litle bird unto your mountaine flye away.
- 2 For loe, the wicked bend their bow, their arrows they prepare on string, to shoot in dark at them in heart that upright are.
- 3 If that the firme foundations, utterly ruin'd bee:
as for the man that righteous is,
what then performe can hee?
- 4 The Lord in's holy temple is,
the Lords throne in heaven:
his eyes will view, and his eye lids will prove the Sonnes of men.

PSALME X7, X17

- 5 The man that truly-righteous is,
ev'n him the Lord will prove,
his soule the wicked hates, & him that violence doth love.
- 6 Snare, fire, & brimstone he will raine,
ungodly men upon:
and burning tempest, of their cup shall be their portion.
- 7 For Iehovah that righteous is,
all righteousness doth love:
his countenance the upright one beholding, doth approve.

Psalme 12

To the chiefe Musician upon Sheminith
a psalme of David.

- HElpe Lord: for godly men doe cease:
faithfull faile men among.
- 2 Each to his freind speaks vanity, with flattering lips, and tongue and with a double heart they speake.
- 3 All flatt'ring lips the Lord shall cut them off, with every tongue that speaketh boasting word.
- 4 Thus have they sayd, we with our tongue, prevailing pow're shall get:
are not our lips our owne, for Lord who over us is set?
- 5 Thus saith the Lord, for sighs of them that want, for poor opprest, I'll now arise, from such as puffe,
I'll set him safe at rest.

PSALM XII, XIII.

- 8 Pure are the words the Lord doth speak:
as silver that is tryde in eithen furnace, seven times that hath been purifyde.
- 7 Thou shalt them keep, o Lord, thou shalt preserve them ev'ry one, For evermore in safety from this generation.
- 6 The wicked men on ev'ry side
doe walk presumptuously, when as the vilest sons of men exalted are on hye.

Psalm 12

To the chiefe Musician: a psalme
of David.

- O IEHOVAH, how long wilt thou forget me aye? how long wilt thou day countenance hide from me farre away?
- 2 How long shall I counsell, in my soule take sorrow in my heart dayly? o're me set how long shall be my foe?
- 3 Jehovah, o my God, behold me answer make,
illuminate mine eyes, lest I the sleepe of death doe take.
- 4 Lest my foe say, I have prevaild 'gainst him: & me those who doe trouble, doe rejoyce, when I shall moved bee,

PSALME XIII, XIV.

- 5 But I asured trust
have put in thy mercy,
my heart in thy salvation shall joy exceedingly.
- 6 Vnto Jehovah I will sing, because that hee for evil bountifully hath rewarded good to mee.

Psalm 14

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

- THe foole in's heart saith ther's no God:
they are corrupt, have done abominable practises, that doth good there is none.
- 2 The Lord from heaven looked downe
on Sonnes of men: to see,
if any that doth understand,
that seeketh God there bee.
- 3 All are gone back, together they evill filthy are become:
and there is none that doth good,
none not so much as one.
- 4 The workers of iniquities, have they no knowledge all that eate my people: they care bread,
and on God doe not call.
- 5 There with a very grievous feare affrighted fore they were,
for God in generation is of such as righteous are.

PSALM XLV, XV.

- 3 The counsell yee would make of him that poore afflicted is, to be asham'd & that because the Lord his refuge is.
- 7 Who Israels health from Syon gives,
his folks captivitie
when God shall turne: Jacob shall joye glad Israel shall be.

Psalm 15

A psalme of David.

- IEHOVAH, who shall in thy tent sojourne, and who is hee shall dwell within thy holy mount:
He that walks uprightlie,
And worketh justice, and speaks truth in's heart, And with his tongue he doth not slander, neither doth unto his neighbour wrong, And 'gainst his neighbour that doth not take up reproachfull lyes.
- 4 Hee that an abject person is contemn'd is in his eyes, But he will highly honour them that doe Iehovah feare:

PSALM XViii

Psalme 18

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake the words of this Song, in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hands of all his enemies, & from the hand of Saule, and hee Sayde,

IL'e dearely love thee, Lord, my strength:

- The Lord is my rock, and my towre and my deliverer, my God, I'll trust in him who is my powre,
My shield, & my salvation-horne,
My high-fort; Who is prayse worthy I on the Lord will call, so shall I bee kept from mine enemye.
- Deaths sorrowes mee encompassed, mee fear'd the floods of ungodlie,
- Hells pangs beset me round about,
the snares of death prevented mee.
- I in my streights, call'd on the Lord, and to my God cry'd: he did heare from his temple my voyce, my crye, before him came, unto his eare.
- Then th' earth shooke, & quak't, & mountaines roots moov'd, & were stir'd at his ire, - Vp from his nostrils went a smoak, and from his mouth devouring fire:
By it the coales inkindled were.
- Likewise the heavens he downe-bow'd and he descended, & there was under his feet a gloomy cloud.
- And he on cherub rode, and flew;
yea he flew on the wings of winde.
- His secret place hee darknes made

PSALME XViii

- his covert that him round confinde, Dark waters, & thick clouds of skies.
- From brightnes, that before him was,
his thickned clouds did passe away, hayl-stones and coales of fire did passe,
- Also Ichovah thundered, within the heavens, the most high likewise his angry-voyce did give,
hayl-stones, and coales of fire did fly.
- Yea he did out his arrows send,
and bruising he them scattered,
and lightnings hee did multiply, likewise he them discomfited.
- The waters channels then were seene, and the foundationes of the world appear'd, at thy rebuke, at blast, of the breath of thy nostrils Lord.
- (2)
- Hee from above sent hee me tooke:
me out of waters-great he drew
- Hee from mine enemies-strong, & from them which me hated did rescue:
For they were mightyer then I.
- They mee prevented in the day of my cloudy calamity,
but for me was the Lord a stay.
- And hee me to large place brought forth:
hee sav'd mee, for he did delight in mee. The Lord rewarded me according as I did aright, According to the cleannesse of

- my hands; he recompenced mee:
 21 For the wayes of the Lord I kept:
 nor from my God went wickedlie.
 22 For all his judgements mee before:
 nor from me put I his decree.
 23 With him I upright was, and kept his my selfe from mine iniquitie.
 24 The Lord hath recompenced mee, after my righteousness therefore:
 according to the cleanness of my hands that was his eyes before.
 25 With mercifull, thou mercifull, with upright thou deales uprightly.
 26 With pure thou pure, thou also wilt with forward turne thy selfe awry.
 27 For thou wilt save th'afflicted folke:
 but wilt the losly looks suppress.
 28 For thou wilt light my lampe: the Lord, my God will lighten my darknesse.
 29 For by thee I am through a troupe, and by my God I leape o're a wall.
 30 Gods way is perfect: Gods word tryde:
 that trust in him be's shield to all.
 31 For who is God except the Lord, or who a rock, our God except?
 32 Its God that girdeth me with strength, and hee doth make my way perfect.
 33 Like to the hyndles he makes my feet:
 and on my high place makes me stand.
 34 Mine armes doe break a bow of brasse;
 so well to waite he leames my hand.

- 35 The shield of thy salvation thou furthermore hast given mee:
 and thy right hand hath mee upheld, thy meeknes made mee great to bee.
 36 Under mee thou makst large my steps, so that mine ankles did not slyde.
 37 My foes pursue'd I, & them caught:
 nor turn'd I till they were destroyd.
 38 I wounded them & they could not rise up: under my feet they fell.
 39 Because that thou hast girded mee with fortitude to the battel: Thou hast subdued under mee,
 those that did up against me rise.
 40 And my foes necks thou gavest mee, that I might wast mine enemyes.
 41 They cryde but there was none to save,
 to God, yet with no answer mee.
 42 I beat them then as dust i'th winde and cast them out as dirt i'th street.
 (4)
 43 And thou from the contentions hast of the people mee set free;
 thou of the heathen mad'st me head:
 people I knew not shall serve mee.
 44 They're at first hearing me obey:
 strangers shall yield themselves to mee.
 45 The strangers shall consume away,
 and from their closets frighted bee.
 46 The Lord lives, and blest be my Rock, let my healths God exalted bee.

PSALM XViii, xix.

- 47 It's God for mee that vengeance works, and brings downe people under mee.
48 Mee from mine enemies he doth save:
and above those that 'gainst me went,
thou lift'st me up; and thou hast freed mee from the man that's violent.
49 I with confession will therefore unto thee render thanksgiving, o Lord, among the heathen-folk;
and to thy name I'll prayles sing.
50 He giveth great deliverance to his King, and doth shew mercy to his annoynted, to David, and to his seed eternally.

Psalme 19

To the chiefe musician a psalme of David.

- THe heavens doe declare the majesty of God:
also the firmament shews forth his handy-work abroad.
2 Day speaks to day, knowledge night hath to night declar'd.
3 There neither speach nor language is,
where their voyce is not heard.
4 Through all the earth their line is gone forth, & unto the utmost end of all the world, their speeches reach also:
4 A Tabernacle hee
in them pitcht for the Sun.
5 Who Bridegroom like from's chamber goes glad

PSALME xix.

- glad Giants-race to run, 6 From heavens utmost end, his course and compassing, to ends of it, & from the heat thereof is hid nothing.
7 The Lords law perfect is,
the soule converting back:
Gods testimony faithfull is,
makes wise who-wisdome-lack.
8 The statutes of the Lord, are right, & glad the heart:
the Lords commandment is pure, light doth to eyes impart.
9 Iehovahs feare is cleane, and doth indure for ever:
the judgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 Then gold, then much fine gold, more to be prized are,
then hony, & the hony-comb, sweeter they are by farre.
11 Also thy servant is admonished from hence:
and in the keeping of the same is a full recompence.
12 Who can his errors know?
from secret faults cleanse mee.
13 And from presumptuous-sins, let thou kept back kept back thy servant bee: Let them not beare the rule who my redeemer art.

Psalm 20.

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David.

IEHOVAH heare thee in the day of sore calamity,
the name of the God of Jacob defend thee mightily.

- 2 Send thee help from his holy place:
from Sion strengthen thee.

- 3 Minde all thy gifts, thy sacrifice accepted for it bee.

Selah.

- 4 Grant thee according to thy heart, all thy counsell fulfill.

- 5 In thy perfect salvation with singing joy we will:

And we in the name of our God our banners will erect:
when as all thy petitions Iehovah shall effect.

- 6 Now I know, that Iehovah doth save his annoynd: Dare with saving strength of his right hand from his pure heav'n will heare.

- 7 In charrets some their confidence, and some in horses set:

PSALME XX, XXI.

but we the name of Iehovah our God will not forget.

- 8 They are brought downe & slain: but we rise and stand stedfastly: 9 Save Lord, & let the King us heare when as to him we cry.

Psalm 21.

To the chiefe Musician a psalme

of David.

IEHOVAH, in thy strength

the King shall joyfull bee, and joy in thy salvation

how vehemently shall hee

- 2 Thou of his heart to him

hast granted the desire:

and thou hast not withholden back, what his lips did require.

Selah.

- 3 For thou dost with blessings of goodnes prevent him

thou on his head of finest gold hast set a Diadem.

- 4 Of thee hee asked life to him thou gav'st it free:

even length of days for evermore unto eternitie.

- 5 In thy salvation

his glory hath bene great:

honour, and comely dignity thou hast upon him set.

- 6 For thou him blessings sett to perpetuities;

PSALM XX.

Thou makst him with thy countenance exceeding glad to bee.

- 7 Because that in the Lord
the King doth trust, & hee through mercy of the highest one, shall not removed bee.

thy hand

- 8 The Lord shall finde out all that are thine enemies: thy right hand also shall finde out those that doe thee despise:

- 9 Thou setst as fiery oven them in times of thine ire:
the Lord will swallow them in his wrath and them consume with fire.

- 10 Thou wilt destroy the fruit, that doth proceed of them, out of the earth: & their seed from among the Sonnes of men.

- 11 Because they evil have intended against thee:
a wicked plot they have devised, but shall not able bee.

- 12 For thou wilt as a butt them set; & thou wilt place thine arrows ready on thy string, full right against their face.

- 13 Lord, in thy fortitude exalted bee on high:
and wee will sing, yea prayse with psalmes thy mighty power will wee.

PSALME XXII.

Psalm 22
To the chiefe musician upon Aijeleth Shabur,
a psalme of David.

MY God, my God, wherefore hast thou forsaken mee? & why
art thou so farre from helping mee, from the words of my cry?

- 2 O my God, I doe cry by day, but mee thou dost not heare;
and eke by night, & unto mee
no quiet rest is there.

- 3 Neverthelesse thou holy art, who constantly dost dwell, within the thankfull prayes of thy people Isracell.

- 4 Our fore-fathers in thee have put assured confidence:
they trusted have, & thou to them didst give deliverance.

- 5 Unto thee they did cry aloud,
and were delivered:
in thee they put their confidence,
and were not confounded.

- 6 But I a worme, & not a man;
of men an opprobrie,
and also of the people am despis'd contemptuoullie.

- 7 All they that doe upon mee look,
a scoffe at mee doe make:
they with the lip doe make a mow,
the head in scorne they shake.

PSALM XXII

- 1 Upon the Lord he hold himselfe, let him now rid him quier:
let him deliver him, because in him he doth delight.
2 But thou art hee that me out of the belly forth didst take:
when I was on my mothers breasts, to hope thou didst mee make.
3 Vnto thee from the tender womb committed been have I: yea thou hast been my mighty God from my mothers belly.

- 4 Be thou not faine away from mee, for tribulation exceeding great is nere at hand, for helper there is none.
5 Mee many buls on every side about have compassed:
the mighty-buls of Bassan have mee round invironed.
6 They have with their wide-opened-mouths so gaped mee upon:
like as it were a ravening and a roaring Lion.
7 As water I am poured out,
and all my bones sundred:
my heart in midst of my bowels,
is like to wax melted.
8 My strength like a pottherd is dryde;
and my tongue fast cleaverd.

PSALME XXII

- unto my jawes, & thou hast brought me to the dust of death.
9 For dogs have compassed me about,
th^r assembly me beset of the wicked; they pierced through my hands, also my feet.
10 My bones I may them number all:
they lookt, they did me view.
11 My cloths among them they did part:
and lor for my coat threw.
12 But thou Lord be not far, my strength, to helpe me hasten thou.
13 My soule from sword, my darling from the powre of dogs rescue.
14 And from the mouth of the Lion give me salvation free:
for thou from hornes of Vnicornes answer hast given mee.
15 Thy name, I will declare to them that Brethren are to mee:
in midst of congregation
I will give praye to thee.

25 CONCERN

PSALM xxii, xxiii.

- 25 Concerning thee shall be my prayse
in the great assembly:
before them that him reverence performe my vowes will I.
- 26 The meek shall eat & be suffic'd: Iehovah prayse shall they that doe him seek: your heart shall live unto perpetuall aye.
- 27 All ends of the earth remember shall
and turne unto the Lord:
and thee all heathen-families to worship shall accord.
- 28 Because unto Iehovah doth
the kingdome appertaine:
and he among the nations is ruler Sovereigne.
- 29 Earths-fat-ones, eat & worship shall
all who to dust descend, (though none can make alive his soule) before his face shall bend.
- 30 With service a posterity him shall attend upon,
to God it shall accounted bee
a generation.
- 31 Come shall they, & his righteousness by them declar'd shall bee, unto a people yet unborne, that done this thing hath hee.
- 23 A Psalm of David.

THe Lord to mee a shepheard is,
want therefore shall not I.

PSALME xxiii, xxiiii.

- 2 Hec in the folds of tender-grasse, doth cause mee downe to lie:
To waters calme me gently leads.
- 3 Restore my soule doth hee:
he doth in paths of righteousness for his names sake leade mee.
- 4 Yea though in valley of deaths shade
I walk, none ill I feare:
because thou art with mee, thy rod,
and staffe my comfort are.
- 5 For mee a table thou hast spread,
in presence of my foes:
thou dost annoynt my head with oyle,
my cup it over-flowes.
- 6 Goodnes & mercy surely shall
all my dayes follow mee:
and in the Lords house I shall dwell so long as dayes shall bee.

Psalme 25

A psalme of David.

PSALME XXV.

- I Lift my soule to thee o Lord.
 My God I trust in thee, let mee not be ashamed; nor let my foes joy over mee.
 3 Yea, all that wait on thee shall not be fill'd with shamefulness:
 but they shall be ashamed all who without cause transgresse.
 4 Thy wayes, Iehovah, make mee know;
 thy paths make me discern.
 5 Cause mee my steps to order well;
 in thy truth, & mee learne.
 For thou God of my saving health, on thee I waite all day.
 6 Thy bowels, Lord, & thy mercyes minde; for they are for aye.
 7 Sinnes of my youth remember not;
 neither my trespasses:
 after thy mercy minde thou mee
 o Lord for thy goodnes.
 8 Good and upright God is, therefore will sinners teach the way.
 9 The meek he'll guide in judgement: & will teach the meek his way.
 10 Iehovahs paths they mercy are,
 all of them truth also,
 to them that keep his covenant, and testimonies do.

as heirs the earth shall use.
- 14 The secret of God is with those that doe him reverence:
and of his covenant he them will give intelligence.
- 15 Mine eyes continually are upon Iehovah set:
for it is hee that will bring forth
my feet out of the net.
- 16 Unto me-wards turne thou thy face,
and on mee mercy show:
because I solitary am afflicted poore also.
- 17 My hearts troubles enlarged are,
from my distresse me bring.
- 18 See mine affliction, & my paine, and pardon all my sin.
- 19 Mark my foes; for they many are,
and cruelly mee hate,
- 20 My soule keep, free mee, nor let mee be sham'd, who on thee wait.

- 4 One thing of God I asked have,
which I will still request:
that I may in the house of God
all dayes of my life rest:

To see the beauty of the Lord,
and in his Temple seeke.

- 5 For in his tent in the evill-day, hidden hee will mee keepe:
Hee will me hide in secrecy of his pavillion:
and will me highly lift upon

PSALM

IN thee, o Lord, I put my trust, let me be shamed never:
according to thy righteousness
o doe thou mee deliver.
2. Bow downe to mee thine care, with speed let mee deliverance have:
be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence mee to save.
3. Because thou unto mee a rock and my fortresse wilt bee:
therefore for thy names sake doe thou, leade mee & guide thou mee.
4. Doe thou mee pull out of the net, which they have for mee layd, so privily: because that thou art to mee a sure ayd.
5. Into thy hands my spirit I com to reposing doe commits:
Iehovah God of verity,
thou hast redeemed it.
6. I hated them that have regard to lying vanity:
7. but I in God trust. I'll be glad,
and joy in thy mercy:
because thou hast considered
my afflicting distresse;
thou hast my soule acknowledged in painfull angishes.
8. And thou hast not inclosed mee within the enemies hand:
thou mad'st my feet within the place of liberty to stand.

9. Have mercy upon mee, o Lord, for in distresse am I,
with grief mine eye consumed is,
my soule & my belly.
10. For my life with grief & my years with sighs are consumed:
because of my sin, my strength failes,
and my bones are wasted.
11. To all my foes I was a scorn, chiefly my neighbours to;
a feare to freinds: they that saw mee withour, did flye me from.
12. I am forgot as a dead man, that's out of memory:
and like a vessel that is broke, ev'n such a one am I.
13. Because that I of many men the slandering did heare, round about me on every side
there was exceeding feare:
While as that they did against mee, counsell together take,
they craftily have purposed my life away to make.
14. But o Iehovah, I in thee my confidence have put.
15. I sayd thou art my God, My times within thy hand are shut:
From the hands of mine enemies doe thou deliver mee, and from the men who mee against my persecuters bee.

(1)

- 15 Thy countenance for to shine forth upon thy servant make:
O give to me salvation
even for thy mercy sake.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord, for call'd on thee I have:
let wicked men be sham'd, let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 Let lying lips be silenced, that against men upright doe speak such things as greivous are,
in pride, & in despight.
- 19 How great 's thy goodnes, thou for the
that feare thee hast hidden:
which thou work'st for them that thee trust,
before the Sonnes of men.
- 20 Thou in the secret of thy face, shalt hide them from mans pride:
in a pavillion, from the strife of tongues, thou wilt them hide.
- 21 O let Iehovah blessed be,
for he hath shewed mee
his loving kindnes wonderfull in a fenced-cittie.
- 22 For I in hast said, I am cast from the sight of thine eyes:
yet thou heard'st the voyce of my suit, when

when to thee were my cries.

- 1 O love the Lord all ye his Saints, because the Lord doth guard the faithfull, but the proud doth doth plenteously reward.

and let your heart wax strong:
all whosoever hopefully doe for Iehovah long.

32 A psalme of David, Maschil.

and he whose aberration

- 2 O blessed is the man to whom the Lord imputes not sin:
and he who such a spirit hath that guile is not therein.
- 3 When I kept silence then my bones began to ware away,

continuing all the day.
- 4 For day & night thy hand on mee,

- because Iehovah with his hand doth underprop him fast.
25 I have been young & now am old;
yet have I never seen the just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.
25 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.
27 Depart from evill, & doe good:
and ever dwell at rest.
28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forsakes not hee; kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.
29 The just inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.
30 The just mans mouth wisdom doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.
31 The law of his God is in's heart:
none of his steps sliderh.
32 The wicked watcheth for the just,
and him to slay seeketh.
33 Iehovah will not such a one relinquish in his hand, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.
(4) 34 Wayt on the Lord, & keep his way, and hee shall thee exalt th'earth to inherit: when cut off the wicked see thou shalt.

PSALME xxxvii, xxxviii.

- 35 The wicked men I have beheld in mighty pow'r to bee:
also him selfe spreading abroad like to a green-bay-tree.
36 Nevertheless he past away, and loe, then was not hee;
moreover I did seek for him,
but found hee could not bee.
37 Take notice of the perfect man, and the upright attend:
because that unto such a man peace is his latter end.
38 But such men that transgressors are together perish shall:
the latter end shall be cut off of the ungodly all.
39 But the salvation of the just doth of Iehovah come:
he is their strength to them in times that are most troublesome.
40 Yea, help & free them will the Lord:
he shall deliver them from wiced men, because that they doe put their trust in him.
Psalm 38
A psalme of David,
to bring to remembrance.
LORD, in thy wrath rebuke me not:
nor in thy hot rage chasten mee.
2 Because thine hand doth presse me sore:
and in me thy shafts fastened bee.

PSALM xxx viii.

- 3 There is no soundnes in my flesh, because thine anger I am in:
nor is there any rest within my bones, by reason of my sin.
- 4 Because that mine iniquities ascended are above my head:
like as an heavy burden, they
to heavy upon me are layd.
- 5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be:
my foolishnes doth make it so.
- 6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe,
all the day long I mourning goe.
- 7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd:
& in my flesh is no soundnes.
- 8 I'me weak & broken sore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlesnes.
- 9 All my desire's before thee, Lord;
nor is my groaning hid from thee.
- 10 My heart doth paine, my strength me fails:
& mine eye sight is gone from mee.
- (2)
- 11 My freinds & lovers from my sore stand off: off it and my kinsmen eke.
- 12 And they lay snares that seek my life, that seek my hurt, they mischief speak.
And all day long imagin guile,
- 13 But as one deafe, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.
- 14 Thus was I as man that heares not,
& in whose mouth reproofes none were.
- 15 because

PSALME xxx viii.

- 15 Because o Lord, in thee I hope:
o Lord my God, thou wilt mee heare.
- 16 For sayd I, lest or'e me they joy:
when my foot slips, they vaunt the more
- 17 themselves 'gainst me. For I to halt am neere, my grief's still mee before.
- 18 For my transgression I'll declare;
I for my sins will sorry bee.
- 19 But yet my lively foes are strong,
who falsly hate me, multiplie.
- 20 Moreover they that doe repay evill in stead of good to mee, because I follow what is good,
to mee they adversaries bee.
- 21 Ichovah, doe not mee forsake:
my God o doe not farre depart
- 22 from mee. Make hast unto mine ayd, o Lord who my salvation art.
- Psalme 39
To the chief musician, even to Jeduthun;
a Psalme of David.
- I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue: I'll keep my mouth with bit, while I
the wicked am among.
- 2 With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.
- 3 Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,

PSALM XXXIX.

- inkindled in me was the fire,
then spake I with my tongue.
- 4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne;
that what a momentary thing
I am I may discern.
- 5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span,
mine age as nought to thee:
surely each man at's best estate is wholly vanity. Selah.
- 6 Sure in a vaine show walketh man;
sure stir'd in vaine they are:
he heaps up riches, & knows not who shall the same gather.
- (2)
- 7 And now, o Lord what way I for:
my hope is upon thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses:
the fooles scorne make not mee.
- 9 I was dumb nor opened my mouth,
this done because thou hast.
- 10 Remove thy stroke away from mee:
by thy hands blow I wast.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity,
thou blast'st his beauty like a moth:
sure each man's vanity. Selah.
- 12 Heare my prayer, Lord, hark to my cry,
be not still at my tears:
for stranger, & pilgrim with thee,
I am, as all my fathers.

PSALME XXXIX, xl.

and be noe more at all.

Psalmc 40.

To the chief musician, a psalm
of David.

- With expectation for the Lord
I wayted patiently, and hee inclined unto mee,
also he heard my cry.
- 2 He brought mee out of dreadfull pri-
out of the miery clay:
and set my feet upon a rock,
hee stablished my way.
- 3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto:
many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.
- 4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide:
nor doth the proud respect, nor such
to lies as turne aside.
- 5 O thou Iehovah, thou my God, hast many a wonder wrought:
and likewise towards us thou hast conceived many a thought.
- Their summe cannot be reck'ned up,
in order unto thee:
would I declare & speak of them, beyond account they bee.

PSALM xl.

Let both thy kindnes & thy truth

PSALME 42

To the chief musician, Maschil, for the Sonnes of Korah.

- L Ike as the Hart panting doth bray after the water brooks, even in such wise o God, my soule, after thee panting looks.
 2 For God, even for the liuing God, my soule it thirsteth sore:
 oh when shall I come & appeare,
 the face of God before.
 3 My teares have been unto mee meat,
 by night also by day, while all the day they unto mee where is thy God doe say.
 4 When as I doe in minde record these things, then me upon I doe my soule out poure, for I with multitude had gone:
 With them unto Gods house I went,
 with voyce of joy & prayle:

I with

PSALM xl. 11.

- I with a multitude did goe that did keepe holy-days.
5 My soule why art cast downe? & art stir'd in mee: thy hope place in God, for yet him prayse I shall for the help of his face.
8 My God, my soule in mee's cast downe, therefore thee minde I will from Iordanes & Hermonites land, and from the litle hill.
7 At the noyse of thy water spouts deep unto deep doth call:
thy waves they are gone over mee,
also thy billowes all.
6 His loving kindnes yet the Lord command will in the day:
and in the night his song with mee,
to my lifes God I'll pray.
9 I unto God will say, my Rock why hast thou forgot mee?
why goe I sad, by reason of pressure of th' enemy.
10 As with a sword within my bones
my foes reproach mee do:
while all the day, where is thy God?
they doe say mee unto.
11 My soule o wherefore dost thou bowe
thy selfe downe heavily;
and wherefore in mee makest thou
a stirr tumultuously?

Hope

PSALME xl. 11, xl. 12.

- Hope thou in God, because I shall
with prayse him yet advance:
who is my God, also he is health of my countenance.
Psalme 43.
I Vdge me, o God, & plead my cause from nation mercilesse;
from the guilefull & man unjust,
o send thou me redresse.
2 For of my strength thou art the God, why cast'st thou mee thee fro:
why goe I mourning for the fore oppression of the foe?
3 Thy light o send out & thy truth, let them lead, & bring mee, unto thy holy hill, & where thy tabernacles bee.
4 Then will I to Gods Altar goe, to God my joyes gladnes:
upon the Harp o God my God
I will thy prayse expresse.
5 My soule o wherefore dost thou bowe
thy selfe downe heavily;
and wherefore in mee makest thou
a stirr tumultuously?
Hope thou in God, because I shall
with prayse him yet advance:
who is my God, also he is
health of my countenance.
Psalme 44.
To the chief musician, for the sonnes of Korah, K PSAL.

WEE with our eares have heard, o God, our fathers have us told,
what works thou diddest in their dayes,
in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drave the heathen out, and them thou planted hast;
how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword
the lands possession; neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:
But thy right hand, thine arme also,
thy countenances light, because that of thine owne good will thou didst in them delight.

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the same indure:
doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a borne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have,
upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou sav'd, and put our foes to shame.

8 In God wee boast all the day long,

and

and for aye prayse thy name.

Selah.

9 But thou hast cast us off away, thou makest us also to be asham'd; neither dost thou forth with our armies goe.

10 Vs from before the enemy thou makest back recoyle:
likewise they which our haters bee,
for themselves us doe spoyle.

11 Thou hast us given like to sheepe to slaughter that belong:
also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.

12 Thou dost thy people set to sale, whereby no wealth doth rise:
neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.

13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou dost us expose,
a scorne we are & mocking stock,
to them that us inclose.

14 Among the heathen people thou a by word dost us make:
also among the nations,
at us their heads they shake.

15 Before me my confusion
it is continually,
and of my countenance the shame hath over covered mee.

16 Because of his voyce that doth scorne, and scoffingly despite:

by reason of the enemy,
and selfe revenging wight.

(3)

- 17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee:
neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.
- 18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;
- 19 Though us thou brake in dragons place,
and hid us in deaths shade.
- 20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretch to a strange God our hands:
- 21 Shall not God search this out: for hee hearts secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd:
counted as sheep to slay.
- 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Lord: arise, cast us not off for aye.
- 24 Thy countenance away from us o wherefore dost thou hide:
of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.
- 25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust:
to earth cleaves our belly.
- 25 Rise for our help, & us redeeme, because of thy mercy.

 17 Sirh thou dost hate teaching and dost my words behinde thee cast.
 18 When thou didst see a thief, then thou with him consented hast;
 And likewise with adulterers thy part hath been the same.
 19 Thy mouth to evill thou dost give,
 and guile thy tongue doth frame, 20 Thou sittest, thou dost speake against the man that is thy brother:
 and thou dost slander him that is the sonne of thine owne mother.
 21 These things hast thou committed, and in silence I kept close:
 that I was altogether like thy selfe, thou didst suppose: Ile thee reprove, & in order before thine eyes them set.
 22 O therefore now consider this yee that doe God forget: Behold I you teare, & there be not any

any deliverer.

- 23 He glorifieth mee that doth praye unto mee offer.
24 And hee that doth order aright
his conversation, to him will I give that hee may see Gods salvation.

Psalm 51.

To the chief musician, a psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in unto Bathsheba.

HAve mercy upon mee o God,
in thy loving kyndnes:
in multitude of thy mercyes blot out my trespasses.

- 2 From mine iniquity doe thou wash mee most perfectly, and also from this sin of mine doe thou mee purify.
3 Because, of my transgressions my selfe doe take notice, and sin that I committed have before mee ever is.
4 Gainst thee, thee only I have sin'd this ill done thee before:
when thou speakest just thou art, & cleare when thou dost judge therefore.
5 Behold, how in iniquity
I did my shape receive:
also my mother that mee bare
in sin did mee conceive.

6 Behold

PSALME 119

- 6 Behold, thou dost desire the truth within the inward part;
and thou shalt make mee wisdom know in secret of my heart.
7 With hysope doe me purify,
I shall be cleansed so:
doe thou mee wash, & then I shall be whiter then the snow.
8 Of joy & of gladnes doe thou make me to heare the voyce:
that so the bones which thou hast broke may cheerfully rejoyce.
9 From the beholding of my sin hide thou away thy face:
also all mine iniquities doe utterly deface.
10 A cleane heart (Lord) in me create, also a spirit right 11 in me renew, O cast not mee away out of thy sight;
Nor from me take thy holy spirit.
12 Restore the joy to mee of thy salvation, & uphold me with thy spirit free.
13 Then will I teach thy wayes to those that work iniquitie:
and by this meanes shall sinners bee converted unto thee.
14 O God, God of my health, set mee free from bloud guiltines,

M

and

PSALM I.

and so my tongue shall joyfully sing of thy righteousness.

17 O Lord-my stay, let thou my lips by thee be opened,
and by my mouth thy prayes shall be openly shewed.

18 For thou desirest not sacrifice;
it would I freely bring:
neither dost thou contentment take in a whole burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of the Lord
they are a broken spire: God, thou wilt not despise a heart that's broken, & contrite.

18 In thy good pleasure o doe thou doe good to Sion hills:
the walles of thy Ierusalem o doe thou build up still.

19 The sacrifice of justice shall please thee, with burnt offering, and whole burnt offering; then they shall calves to thine Altar bring.

Another of the same.

O GOD, have mercy upon mee, according to thy kindenes deare:
and as thy mercyes many bee, quite doe thou my transgressions cleare.

2 From my perversnes mee wash through;
and from my sin mee purify.

3 For my transgressions I doe know, before

PSALME LI.

4 Gainst thee, thee only sin'd have I, & done this evill in thy sight:
that when thou speakest thee justify men may, and judging cleare thee quite.

5 Loe, in injustice I have't I was:
in sin my mother conceav'd mee.

6 Loe, thou in th'inwards truth lov'd hast:
and made mee wise in secrecie.

7 Purge me with hyssope, & I cleare shall be; mee wash, & then the snow

8 I shall be whiter. Make me heare Ioy & gladnes, the bones which fo Thou broken hast joy cheeryly shall.

9 Hyde from my sins thy face away blot thou iniquities out all which are upon mee any way.

10 Create in mee cleane heart at last God: a right spirit in me new make.

11 Nor from thy presence quite me cast, thy holy spright nor from me take.

12 Meet thy salvations joy restore, and stay me with thy spirit free.

13 I wil, transgressors teach thy lore, and sinners shall be turn'd to thee.

14 Deliver mee from guilt of blood, o God, God of my health-saving, which if thou shalt vouchsafe, aloud thy righteousness my tongue shall sing.

15 My lips doe thou, o Lord, unclose,

M 2

PSALM LII

- and thy praye shall my mouth forth shew 16 For sacrifice thou hast not chose, that I should it on thee bestow:
 Thou joy'st not in burnt sacrifices:
 17 Gods sacrifices are a sp'ryte broken; o God, thou'lt not despise, a heart that's broken & contrite.
 28 In thy good will doe thou bestow on Sion goodnes bounteouslie: Ierusalem walles that lye so low doe thou vouchsafe to edifie.
 19 Then shalt thou please to entertaine the sacrifices with content of righteousness, the offerings slaine, which unto thee wee shall present, Together with the offerings such as in fire whole burned are:
 and then they shall their bullocks bring,
 offerings to be on thine altar.

Psalm 52

To the chief musician, Maschil. a psalme of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saule, & sayd unto him, David is come to the house of Achimelech.

- O Man of might, wherefore dost thou thus boast thy selfe in ill:
 the goodnes of the mighty God endureth ever still.
 2 Thy tongue presumptuously doth mischievous things devise:
 it is like to a razor sharp, working

PSALME LIJ, LIII.

- working deceitfull lies.
 3 Thou lovest evil more then good,
 more to speak lies then right.
 4 O guilefull tongue, thou dost in all devouring words delight.
 5 God shall likewise for evermore destroying thee deface, he shall take thee away, & pluck thee from thy dwelling place,
 And also root thee out from off the land of the living. Selah.
 6 The righteous also shall it see and feare, at him laughing.
 7 Loe, this the man that made not God his strength: but trusted in his store of wealth, himselfe made strong in his mischievous sin.
 8 But in the house of God am I like a greene Olive-tree:
 I trust for ever & for aye,
 in Gods benignitie.
 9 Thee will I praye for evermore, because thou hast done this:
 and I'll way on thy name, for good before thy Saints that is.

Psalm 53.

To the chief musician upon Mahalath, Maschil. a psalme of David.

- 2 The Lord from heaven looked downe
on sonnes of men, to see
if any that doth understand,
that seeketh God there bee.
- 3 All are gone back, together they
ev'n filthy are become;
and there is none that doth good,
noe not so much as one.
- 4 The workers of iniquities have they noe knowledge all who eate my people: they eate bread,
and on God doe not call.
- 5 Greatly they fear'd, where noe feare was,
'gainst thee in camp that lyes his bones God scattered; & them sham'd for God doth them despise.
- 6 Who Israells health from Sion gives,
his folks captivitie
when God shall turne: Jacob shall joye glad Israell shall bee.

Psalme 54

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, psalme of David, when the Ziphims came & sayd to Saul, doth not David hide himselfe with us?

- P Reserve mee, by thy name, O God, & by thy strength judge mee.
- 2 O God, my pray'r heare, give care to words in my mouth that bee.
- 3 For strangers up against me rise,
and who oppresse me sore, pursue

PSALME LIII, lv.

- pursue my soule; neither have they set God themselves before. Selah.
- 4 Loe, God helps mee, the Lord's with them that doe my soule sustaine.
- 5 He shall reward ill to my foes:
them in thy truth restrayne.
- 6 Vnto thee sacrifice will I,
with voluntarines;
Lord, to thy name I will give praye, because of thy goodnes.
- 7 For he hath mee delivered,
out of all miseries:
and its desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemies.

Psalme 55

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil,
a psalme of David.

- O GOD, doe thou give care unto my supplication:
and doe not hide thy selfe away from my petition.
- 2 Bee thou attentive unto mee,
and answer mee returne,
I in my meditation
doe make a noyse & mourne.
- 3 Because of th' enemies voyce, because the wicked haue oppress'd for they in justice on mee cast and in wrath mee detest.
- 4 My heart in mee is payn'd, on mee deaths terrors fallen bee.

5 Trembling

PSALM lvi.

- 5 Trembling & feare are on mee come,
horroure hath covered mee, 6 Then did I say, o who to mee wings of a dove will give,
that I might flie away & might in quiet dwelling live.
7 Lo, I would wander farre away, and in the desert rest. Selah.
8 Soone would I scape from windy storme, from violent tempest.
9 Lord bring on them destruction, doe thou their tongues divide;
for strife & violence I within the city have espy'd.
10 About it on the walles thereof, they doe walk night & day:
mischief also & sorrow doe
in midst of it stay.
11 In midst thereof there's wickednes; deceitfullnes also,
and out of the broad streets thereof guilefullnes doth not go.
12 For 'twas no foe reproach mee, then could I have borne; nor did my foe against me lift himselfe from him had I me bid.
13 But thou it was, the man that wert my well esteemed peere, which wast to mee my speciall guide,
and mine acquaintance neere.

PSALME lvi.

- 14 Wee did together counsell take in sweet society:
and wee did walk into the house of God in company.
15 Let death seize on them, & let them goe downe quick into hell:
for wickednes among them is in places where they dwell.
(2)
16 As for mee, I will call on God, and mee the Lord save shall.
17 Ev'ning morn, & at noon will I pray, & aloud will call, 18 and he shall heare my voyce. He hath in peace my soule set free from warre that was 'gainst mee, because there many were with mee.
19 God shall heare, & them smite, ev'n he that doth of old abide; Selah.
because they have no change; therefore Gods feare they lay aside.
20 Gainst such as be at peace with him hee hath put forth his hand:
he hath also the covenant which he had made prophand.
21 His words then butter smother were,
but warre in's heart: his words mote then the oyle were softened but yet they were drawne swords.
22 Thy burden cast upon the Lord, and he sustaine thee shall:

PSALM 1v, 1v.

- nor shall he suffer righteous ones to be remov'd at all.
23 But thou o God, shalt downe to hell bring them who bloody bee, guilefull shall not live halfe their dayes;
but I will trust in thee.

Psalmc 56.

To the chief musician upō Ionath Elem Recho-kim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines tooke him in Gath.

- LORD, pitty mee, because man would up swallow mee:
and fighting all the day throughour, oppresse mee sore doth hee.
2 Mine enemies they would me swallow up dayly;
for they be many that doe fight against mee, o most high.
3 I'll put my trust in thee,
what time I am afraid.
4 In God I'll prayse his word, in God my confidence have stayd;
I will not be afraid
what flesh can doe to mee.
5 All day they wrest my words: their thoughts for ill against me bee.
6 They joyne themselves together; themselves they closely hyde;
they mark my steps when for my soule wayting they doe abyde.
7 Shall they make an escape

by

PSALME 1v, 1v.

- by their iniquity;
thou in thine anger downe depresse
the folk, o God mighty.
8 My wandrings thou dost tell, put thou my weeping teares into thy bottle; are they not within thy registers.
9 Then shall my foes turne back,
when I cry unto thee:
this I doe know assuredly, because God is for mee.
10 In God I'll prayse his word:
the Lords word I will prayse.
11 In God I trust: I will not feare what man 'gainst mee can raise.
12 Thy vows on me o God;
I'll render prayse to thee.
13 Because that thou my soule from death delivering dost free; Deliver wilt not thou
my feet from downe falling;
so that I may walk before God in light of the living.

Psalmc 57

To the chief musician Altaschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

- O GOD, to me be mercifull, be mercifull to mee:
because my soule for shelter safe betakes it selfe to thee.

that doth for me performe.
- 3 He will from heaven send, & save mee from the spightfull scorne Of him that would with greedy hast

the Lord from heaven will send forth his grace & verity.
- 4 My soule's 'mongst lions, & I lye with men on-her-set:
mens sonnes whose teeth are spears, & thasies, whose tongues as swords are whet.
- 5 O God, doe thou exalt thy selfe,
above the heavens high:
up over all the earth also
lifted be thy glory.
- 6 They for my steps prepar'd a net,
my soule is bow'd; a pit they dig'd before me, but themselves are fall'n in midst of it. Selah.
- 7 My heart o God, prepared is,
prepared is my heart,
sing will I, & sing prayse with psalmes.
- 8 Vp o my glorie start; Wake Psaltery & Harp, I will awake in the morning.
- 9 Among the folk I'll prayse thee Lord,
'mongst nations to thee sing.

PSALME LVII, LVIII.

- 10 For great unto the heavens is thy mercifull bounty;
thy verity also doth reach unto the cloudy skye.
- 11 O God, doe thou exalt thy selfe,
above the heavens high:
up over all the earth also
lifted be thy glory.

Psalm 58

To the chief musician, Altafchith, michram of David.

- DOe yee o congregation, indeed speak righteousness:
and o yee sons of earthly men, doe yee judge uprightnes?
- 2 Yea you in heart will working be injurious-wickednes;
and in the land you will weigh out your hands violentnes.
- 3 The wicked are estranged from the womb, they goe astray as soone as ever they are borne;
uttering lyes are they.
- 4 Their poyson's like serpents poyson:
they like deafe Aspe, her eare that stops. Though Charmer wisely charme, his voice she will not heare.
- 5 Within their mouth doe thou their teeth break out, o God most strong, doe thou Iehovah, the great teeth break of the lions young.

PSALM lviij, lix.

- 7 As waters let them melt away,
that run continually:
and when he bends his shafts, let them
as cut asunder bee.
- 8 Like to a snayle that melts, so let
each of them passe away;
like to a womans untimely birth see Sun that neuer they may.
- 9 Before your potts can feele the thornes,
take them away shall hee,
as with a whirlwinde both living,
and in his jealousiee.
- 10 The righteous will rejoyce when as the vengeance he doth see:
his feet wash shall be in the blood of them that wicked bee.
- 11 So that a man shall say, surely for righteous there is fruit: sure there's a God that in the earth judgement doth execute.

Psalme 59

To the chief musician Altaschith, Michtam of David: when Saul sent, & they watched the house to kill him.

- O GOD from them deliver mee that are mine enemies:
set thou me up on high from them that up against me rise.
- 2 Deliver mee from them that work grievous-iniquity:
and be a saviour unto mee from

PSALME lix.

- from men that be bloody.
- 3 For loe, they for my soule lay wayt, the strong causlesse combine against me, not for my crime, Lord, nor any sin of mine.
- 4 Without iniquity in me they run, & ready make themselves, doe thou behold, also unto my help awake.
- 5 Lord God of host, thou Israels God, rise to visit therefore all hearthens, who sin wilfully, to them shew grace no more.
- 6 At ev'ning they returne, & like to dogs a noyse doe make,
and so about the city round
a compasse they doe take.
- 7 Behold they belch out with their mouthis, within their lips swords ate:
for who is he (doe these men say) which us at all doth beare.
- 8 But thou O Lord, at them wilt laugh, and hearthens all wilt mock.
- 9 And for his strength I'll wayt on thee for God is my high Rock.

- 10 God of my mercy manyfold with good shall prevent mee:
and my desire upon my foes
the Lord will let mee see.
- 11 Slay them not, lest my folk forget:

but

PSALM LIX.

- but scatter them abroad by thy strong power, & bring them downe, who art our shield o God.
- 72 For their mouths sin, & their lips words, and in their pride them take:
and for their cursing, & lying which in their speech they make,
- 73 Consume in wrath, consume & let them be no more, that they may know that God in Jacob rules, to th'ends of the earth. Selah.
- 74 And at evening let thine returns, and like dogs a noyse make,
and so about the city round
a compasse let them take.
- 75 And let them wander up & downe seeking what they may eat, and if they be not satisfide,
then let them grudge thereat.
- 76 But I will sing thy powre, & thou
i' th morning thy kindnesse:
for thou my towre & refuge art in day of my distresse.
- 77 Thou art my strength, & unto thee, sing psalmes of prayse will I:
for God is mine high towre, he is the God of my mercy.

PSALME LX.

Ioab returned, & smote of Edom in the valley of salt, twelve thousand.

- O GOD, thou hast rejected us, and scattered us abroad:
thou hast displeased ben with us, returne to us o God.
- 2 The land to tremble thou hast caus'd, thou it asunder brake:
do thou the breaches of it heale,
for it doth movinge shake.
- 3 Thou hast unto thy people shew'd things that are hard, thou hast also the cup of trembling given to them to tast.
- 4 But unto them that doe thee feare, a Banner to display thou given hast to be lift up for thy truths sake. Selah.
- 5 That those who thy beloved are delivered may bee,
o doe thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to mee.

 7 Before the face of the strong God
 he shall abide for aye:
 doe thou mercy & truth prepare that him preserve they may.
 8 So then I will unto thy name sing prayse perpetually, that I the vowes which I have made may pay continually.

Psalm 62

To the chief musician, to Iedun,

a psalm of David.

- Truely my soule in silence waytes
 the mighty God upon:
 from him it is that there doth come all my saluation.
 2 He only is my rock, & my saluation: it is hee
 that my defence is, so that I mov'd greatly shall not bee.
 3 How long will yee mischief devise 'gainst man: be slaine yee shall,
 all yee are as a tottering fence, & like a bowing wall.

 the mighty God upon:
 because from him there doth arise
 my expectation.
 6 He only is my rock, & my salvation; it is hee
 that my defence is, so that I shall never mooued bee.
 7 In God is my salvation, also is my glory:
 and the rock of my fortitude,
 my hope in God doth ly.
 8 Yee people, see that you on him doe put your trust alway, before him poure ye out your hearts:
 God is our hopefull stay. Selah.

 A psalme of David, when he was in the wilderness of Iudah.
 O GOD, thou art my God, early
 I will ~~for~~ thee inquire:
 my soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh for thee hath strong desire, In land whereas no water is that thirsty is & dry.
 2 To see, as I saw in thine house thy strength & thy glory.
 3 Because thy loving kindenes doth abundantly excell
 eu'n life it selfe: wherefore my lips forth shall thy prayes tell.
 4 Thus will I blessing give to thee whilst that alive am I:
 and in thy name I will lift up these hands of mine on high.
 5 My soule as with marrow & fat shall satisfied bee:
 my mouth also with joyfull lips shall praye give unto thee.

he that to me help brings;
therefore will I sing joyfully in shadow of thy wings.
- 8 My soule out of an ardent love doth follow thee after thee;
also thy right hand it is that which hath upholden mee.
- 9 But as for those that seek my soule
to bring it to an end, they shall into the lower parts of the earth downe descend.
- 10 By the hand of the sword also they shall be made to fall;
and they be for a portion unto the Foxes shall.
- 11 But the King shall rejoyce in God;
all that by him doe sweare shall glory, but stopped shall be their mouths that lyars are.

To the chief musician, a psalm
of David.

- O GOD, when I my prayer make,
my voyce then doe thou heare;
also doe thou preserve my life safe from the enemies feare.
- 2 And from the secret counsell of the wicked hide thou mee;
from th' insurrection of them that work iniquitee.

PSALME lxiv.

- 3 Who have their tongue now sharpened
like as it were a sword;
and bend their bowes to shoot their shafts
even a most bitter word:
- 4 That they in secrecie may shoot the perfect man to hirt.
suddenly doe they shoot at him, & never feare a whitt.
- 5 Them selves they in a matter ill encourage; how they may lay snares in secret, thus they talk;
who shall them see? they lay.
- 6 They doe search out iniquity,
a search exact they keepe:
both inward thought of every man
also the heart is deep.
- 7 But God shall shoot at them a shaft, be sudden their wound shall.
- 8 So that they shall make their owne tongue upon themselves to fall,
All that see them shall flee away.
- 9 All men shall feare, & tell the works of God, for his doeing they shall consider well.
- 10 The just shall in the Lord be glad,
and trust in him he shall:
and they that upright are in heart in him shall glory all.

To the chief musician, a psalm and song of David.

PSALM

PSALM lxxv.

- O GOD, in Sion silently praise wayteth upon thee;
and thankfully unto thee shall
the vow performed bee.
- O thou that harken dost unto the prayr that men doe make, ev'n unto thee therefore all flesh themselves they shall betake.
- Works of iniquitie they have prevailed against mee;
as for our trespasses they shall be purge away by thee.
- O blessed is the man of whom thou thy free choyce dost make;
and that he may dwell in thy courts him neere to thee dost take:
For with the good things of thy house be satisfide shall wee;
and with the holy things likewise that in thy temple bee.
- In righteousness, thou, by the things that dreadfully are done,

Pfalme 66

To the chief musician a psalme or song.

- O All yee lands, a joyfull noyse unto God doe yee rayse.
2 Sing forth the honour of his name:
make glorious his prayse.
3 How dreadfull in thy works art thou unto the Lord say yee:
through thy powres greatnes thy foes shall submit themselves to thee.
4 All they shall bow themselves to thee that dwell upon the earth, and sing unto thee, they shall sing unto thy name with mirth. Selah.
5 Come hither, also of the works of God take yee notice, he in his doing terrible towards mens children is.
6 He did the sea into dry land convert, a way they had on foot to passe the river through, there we in him were glad.
7 He ruleth by his powre for ever,
his eyes the nations spie: let not those that rebellious are lift up themselves on high. Selah.

and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughour.

7 Within the fates which they have extended are their eyes:
greater prosperity they have then their hearts can devise.

shall be exalted high.

Psalm 76

To the chief musician, on Neginoth, a psalm or song of Asaph.

IN Iudah God is knowne: his name is great in Israel.

- 2 In Salem also is his tent:
in Zion he doth dwell,

- 3 There brake he th' arrows of the bow,
the shield, sword, & battell. Selah.

- 4 Illustrious thou art, thou dost the mounts of prey excell.

- 5 They that are stout of heart are spoyld, they slept their sleep profound:
and of the men of might there is none that their hands have found.

- 6 Of Iacob o thou mighty God,
as thy rebuke our past,
the chariot also, & the horse in a dead sleepe are cast.

- 7 Thou ev'n thou art to be feared, and who is it before thy presence that can stand, when as that thou art angry sore?

judgement from heav'n above:
the earth exceedingly did feare,
also it did not move.

- 9 When as the mighty God arose, to th' execution
of judgement, to save all the meek that are the earth upon. Selah.

- 10 Assuredly unto thy praye, shall turne the wrath of man:
& the remainder of the wrath
also thou shalt restrain.

- 11 Vow, & pay to the Lord your God;
that him surround all yee,
and bring ye presents unto him,
that feared ought to bee.

- 12 The spirit that in Princes is,
asunder cut he shall:
unto the Kings on earth that bee, dreadfull he is withall.

Psalme 77

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, a psalme of Asaph.

TO GOD I cryed with my voyce: yea with my voyce I have cryed unto the mighty God;
and care to mee he gave.

- 2 In my distresse I sought the Lord;
my sore ran in the night, & ceased not: also my soule refused comfort quite.

- 3 I did remember God, also disqui-

PSALME lxx viii

disquieted was I:

I did complaine, & my spirit o'rewhelmd was heavily. Selah.

- 4 Awaking thou dost hold mine eyes:
I cannot speak for feares.

- 5 I have considered dayes of old,
of ancient times the yeares.

- 6 To my remembrance I doe call the song in night I had:

I commun'd with my heart, also strict search my spirit made.

- 7 For ever will the Lord cast off, & pleas'd will he not bee:

- 8 His tender mercy is it cease to perpetuitee:

His promise doth it, faile for aye:

- 9 Hath God forgot likewise gracious to be? hath he shut up in wrath his deare mercyes? Selah.

- 10 Then did I say, within my selfe, tis mine infirmity:

the yeares of the right hand I will think on of the most high.

(3)

- 11 I will unto remembrance call the actions of the Lord:
thy wondrous works of ancient time surely I will record.

- 12 I'll muse also of all thy works,
& of thy doings talk.

PSALM lxxviii.

- 10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk
in his law they denyde: 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot, that he to them descryde.
12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers sight:
in Egypts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
13 He did devide the sea, also he caus'd them through to passe:
& he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
14 With cloud by day, with fire all night 15 he led them; Rocks he clave in wilderness, as from great deeps drink unto them he gave.
16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock streames he did bring also, & caus'd water to run downe like as the rivers do.

(3)

- 17 Moreover they did adde yet more against him for to sin:
by their provoaking the most high the wilderness within.
18 And also they within their heart did tempt the God of might:
by asking earnestly for meat for their soules appetite: 19 Moreover they against God spake:
they sayd can God be able within

PSALME lxxviii.

- within the desert wilderness to furnish us a table: 20 Lo, he the rock smote, thence gush't out waters, & streames did flow:
for his folk can he flesh provide,
can he give bread also:
21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this,
so kindled was a fire gainst Iacob: & gainst Israell
there came up wrathfull ire.
22 For they in God believed not:
nor in his health did hope:
23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds:
& doores of heav'n for open'd
(4)
24 Manna to eate he rained on them; & gave them the heavns wheat.
25 Each man of them are Angells food:
to th'full he sent them meate.
26 Ith heav'ns he made the East-winde blow:
brought South-winde by his pow'r.
27 He flesh on them like dust: wing'd foules like the seas sand did shewre.
28 And in the midst of their camp he caus'd it to fall, ev'n round about on every side their dwelling places.
29 So they did eate, they filled were abundantly also:
for that which was their owne desire
he did on them bestow:

30 How,

PSALM lxxviii

- 30 Howbeit they were not estranged from their lustfull desire:
but while their meat was in their mouths, 31 Vpon them came Gods ire,
And slew them, fat ones: & smote downe of I Israell the choise men.
32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.
(5)
33 Therefore he did in vanity the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearefull end.
34 When he them slew, then after him they sought with their desire:
and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
35 Likewise that God was their strong rock, they call'd to memorie:
and that the mighty God most high,
was their Redeemer free.
36 Yet with their mouth they flattered him, and to him their tongues lyde.
37 For right their heart was not in them, nor did in's covenant byde.
38 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not:
yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor rayf'd all's anger hor.
39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh, and as it were a winde

that

PSALME lxxviii

- that passeth, & comes not againe, recalled unto minde.
40 How oft in desert vext they him, and made him there to moane?
41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint I'stells holy one.
42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance:
wherein he from the enemy gave them deliverance.
43 And how his signes miraculous in Egypt he had showne:
and his most fearefull prodiges within the field of Zoan: 44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
& (that they could not drink thereof)
the waters of their flood.
45 Amongst them, which did them deuoure, he sent forth diuers flies:
& them amongst, which them destroyd, he sent forth frogs likewise.
46 He gave their fruit to th' Caterpillars: their labour to th' Locust.
47 He did their Vines destroy with haile:
their Sycamores with frost.
48 Also vnto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast:
likewise their herds of cattell to the fiery thunder blast.

PSALM lxxviii.

- 49 He cast on them fierce fire, & wrath, & indignation, & sore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.
(7)
- 50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave.
- 51 He within Egypt land also all the first borne did smite:
those that within the tents of Ham were chiefest of their might.
- 52 But he made like a flock of sheepe his owne folk forth to go:
like to a flock in wilderness he guided them also.
- 53 And he in safety did them lead
so that they did not dread:
within the sea their enemies he also covered.
- 54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place:
unto this mountaine which he did
by his right hand purchase.
- 55 For then he cast the heathen out, their lot he did deuide by line: & Israells tribes he made in their tents to abide.
(8)
- 56 Yet they tempted the most high God,

and

PSALME lxxviii.

- & griev'd him bitterly:
also his testimonyes they kept not attentively:
- 57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did shewe:
they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.
- 58 For they to anger did provoke him with their places hye:
& with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.
- 59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Isr'ell with hatred great:
- 60 So Shiloh's tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set, 61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:
also into the enemies hand
his beautifull glory.
- 62 To th' sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.
- 63 Fire their young men devour'd: their maides none gave to marriage.
- 64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.
- 65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:
Like a strong man that after wine doth shoute. He also smote his foes behind: & so he gave them an eternall blor.

68 But he the tribe of Iudah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
69 And he his Sanctuary buile like unto places high:
like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.
70 Of David also his servant election he did make,
and from the place of folding up the sheep he did him take.
71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance, to feed Iacob his folk, also Ist'ell his heritance.
72 So he according to his hearts integrity them fed:
and by the wise discretion of his hands he them led.

6 Vpon the heathen poure thy wrath which never did thee know, upon the kingdomes that have not doe thou stir up thy strength, & come and to us safety show.

a Vine, thou diddest cast the heathen people forth, also this vine thou planted hast.
9 Before it thou prepared hast deep root thou didst cause it to take and it did fill the land.

10 Her shade hid hills, & her boughs did like Cedars great extend.
11 Her boughs to the sea, & her branches she to the floud did send.

Psalm 88

A song or psalme for the sons of Korah, to the chief musician up o Mahalah Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrabite.

- LORD God of my salvation, before thee day & night cryde I 2 Before thee o let my pray'r come:
 incline thine eare unto my cry.
 3 Because my soule is troubled so:
 and my life draws nigh to the grave.
 4 Counted with them to'th pit that go:
 I'me as a man that no strength have.
 5 Free among those men that be dead, like slaine which in the grave are shut;
 by thee noe more remembered:
 and by thy hand off are they cut.
 6 Thou hast mee layd i'th pit most low in darknesses, within deep caves.
 7 Hard on mee lyes thy wrath, & thou dost mee afflict with all thy waves. Selah.
 8 Men that of mine acquaintance bee thou hast put far away mee fro:
 unto them loathsome thou madst mee,
 I am shut up nor forth can go.

11 I'th grave wilt thou thy kindenes show?
in lost estate thy faithfullnes?
12 Thy works that wonderfull have been within the dark shall they be knowne?
& shall thy righteousness be scene in the land of oblivion?
13 But Lord I have cryde thee unto 14 Lord why casts thou my soule thee fro?

why hidest thou thy face from mee?
15 I'me poore afflicted, & to dye am ready, from my youthfull yeares, I am sore troubled doubtfully while I doe beare thy horrid feares.
16 Thy fierce wrath over mee doth goe, thy terrors they doe mee dismay.
17 Encompasse mee about they doe, close mee together all the day.

PSALM

PSALME lxxxix.

The mercyes of Iehovah sing for evermore will I:
I'll with my mouth thy truth make known to all posterity.

- 2 For I have sayd that mercy shall for ever be up build;
establish in the very heav'ns thy faithfullnes thou wilt.
3 With him that is my chosen one
I made a covenant:
& by an oath have sworne unto David mine owne servant.
4 To perpetuity thy seed establish-sure I will:
also to generations all thy throne I'll build up still. Selah.
5 Also the heav'ns thy wonders Lord, they shall with prayse confesse;
in the assemblie of the Saints also thy faithfullnes.
6 For who can be compar'd unto the Lord the heav'ns within?
'mong sonnes of mighty to the Lord who is't that's like to him.

(2)

- 7 I'th Saints assemblie greatly God

Psalm 90.

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

- O LORD, thou hast been unto us from generation, to generation, a place
of fixed mansion.
- 2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, ere earth & world by thee were form'd: thou art eternally God to eternitee.
- 3 Thou dost unto destruction
turne miserable men:
and then thou sayst yee sonnes of men doe yee returne agen.
- 4 For why o Lord, a thousand yeares are but within thy sight as yesterday when it is past;

and

PSALM xC.

- and as a watch by night.
 5 By thee like as it were a flood they quite away are borne, they like a sleep, & as the grasse that grows up in the mome.
 6 It in the morning flourisheth, it also up doth grow;
 it in the ev'ning is cut downe it withereth also.
 7 Because wee by thine anger are consumed speedily:
 and by thy fore displeasure wee are troubled suddenly.
 8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee in thy sight:
 our secret evils are within
 thy countenances light.
 9 Because in thine exceeding wrath
 our dayes all passe away:
 our years wee have consumed quite,
 ev'n as a tale are they.
 (2) 10 Threescore & ten yeares are the dayes of our yeares which remaine, & if through strength they fourscore be,
 their strength is grief & paine:
 For it's cut off soone, & wee flye 11 away: Who is't doth know thine angers strength? according as thy feare, thy wrath is so.
 12 Teach us to count our dayes: our hearts

PSALME xC, xCⁱ.

- so wee'l on wi'dome ser.
 13 Turne Lord, how long? of thy servants let it repent thee yet?
 14 O give us satisfaction betimes with thy mercee:
 that so rejoyce, & be right glad,
 through all our dayes may wee.
 15 According to the dayes wherin affliction wee have had,
 and yeares wherin wee have seen ill,
 now also make us glad.
 16 Vnto those that thy servants be doe thou thy work declare:
 also thy comely glory to those that thy children are.
 17 Let our Gods beauty be on us, our handy works also stablish on us; our handy work establish it doe thou.

Psalme 91.

- HE that within the secret place

 my confidence will stay.
 3 Surely out of the fowlers snare

 also thee from the Pestilence

PSALM xCr.

- infectious shall free.
 4 He with his feathers hide thee shall,
 under his wings shall bee thy trust: his truth shall be a shield

 5 Thou shalt not be dismayed with feare for terrour by the night:
 nor for the arrow that with speed flyeth in the day light:
 6 Nor for the Pestilence that doth nor for the sore destruction that doth at noone day wast.

 & ten thousand also at thy right hand, but it shall not

 8 Only thou with thine eyes this thing attentively shalt view:
 also thou shalt behold how that the wicked have their due.
 9 Because Iehovah who hath been my safe protection, ev'n the most high, thou hast him made thine habitation.
 10 Not any thing that evill is there shall to thee befall, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling place at all.

& of thy vehement disdain:
for thou hast high advanced mee, & thou hast cast mee downe againe.

12 But thou, Lord, dost abide for aye:
& thy Name to eternitie.
13 Thou wilt arise, & wilt shew forth thy tender-mercy on Sion:
for it is time to favour her, yea the set time is now come on.

fathers iniquitee:
and of his mother never let
the sin out blotted bee.
15 Before Ichovah let them bee continually pur:
that from out of the earth he may
the mem^y of them cut.
16 Because that he remembred not compassion to impart, but did pursue the needy poore:
to slay the broke in heart.

- 17 As he did curling love, so let curling unto him come:
as he did not in blessing joy,
so be it far him from.
18 With curling like a robe as hee cloath'd him: so let it go like water to his bowels, and like oyle his bones into.
19 Garment like let it to him be,

26 Help mee, o Lord my God: after thy mercy save thou mee:
27 That they may know this is thy hand:
Lord that it's done by thee.
28 Let them curse, but o doe thou blesse, when as that they arise let them be shamed, thy servant

Psalme 141.

A psalme of David.

- O GOD, my Lord, on thee I call, doe thou make hast to mee:
and hearken thou unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.
- 2 And let my pray^r directed be as incense in thy sight:
and the up-lifting of my hands
as sacrifice at night.
- 3 Iehovah, oh that thou wouldst see a watch my mouth before;
as also of my lips with care
o doe thou keepe the dore.

PSALM Cxlii.

- VNto Iehovah with my voice;
I did unto him cry:
unto Iehovah with my voice
my sute for grace made I.
- 2 I did poure out before his face
my meditation:
before his face I did declare the trouble mee upon.
- 3 O'rewhelm'd in mee when was my spirit;
then thou didst know my way:
I'th way I walkt, a snare for mee they privily did lay.
- 4 On my right hand I lookt, & saw;
but no man would mee know;
all refuge faild mee: for my soule none any caredid show.
- 5 Then to thee Lord, I cryde, & sayd,
my hope thou art alone: & in the land of living ones thou art my portion.
- 6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry:
from my pursuers save thou mee, which stronger bee then I.

Psalm 149.

- Praise yee the Lord: unto the Lord doe yee sing a new song: & in the congregation his praise the Saints among.
2 Let Israell now joyfull bee in him who him hath made:
children of Sion in their King
o let them be full glad.
3 O let them with melo'dious flute his Name give praise unto:
let them sing praises unto him with Timbrell, Harp also.
4 Because Iehovah in his folk doth pleasure greatly take:
the meek bee with salvation ev'n beautifull will make.
5 Let them the gracious Saints that be most gloriously rejoyce: & as they lye upon their beds lift up: their singing voyce.

PSALME CXLIX, CL.

An admonition to the Reader.

THe verses of these psalmes may be reduced to six kinde, the first wherof may be sung in very neere fourty common tunes; as they are collected out of our chief musicians, by Tho. Ravenscroft.

The second kinde may be sung in three tunes as
Ps. 25. 50. & 67. in our english psalm books.

The third. may be sung indifferently, as *ps. the 51.
100. & ten cō mandements*, in our english psalm books. which three tunes aforesaid, comprehend almost all this whole book of psalmes, as being tunes most familiar to us.

The fourth. as ps. 148. of which there are but about five.

The fift. as ps. 112. or the Pater noster, of which there are but two. viz. 83. & 130.
